When visiting one of our properties, we want to ensure your experience is a truly enjoyable and unforgettable one, that will make you want to return or try another Blue Book property.

I am delighted to welcome our new properties for 2021, Dax Restaurant in Dublin and Delphi Lodge in Co. Galway. Our collection offers endless options to those of you seeking a scenic retreat or a gourmet getaway. For the adventurers among you, we offer fishing, hiking, cycling, golf and equestrian pursuits in several properties.

There are enticing packages for food lovers and gourmets, as all our houses are synonymous with good food, many producing much of the produce in their gardens. Some also offer internationally acclaimed cookery courses. We are very proud of our chefs and patron chefs with many of our restaurants, boasting one- and two-star Michelin restaurants. By our very nature and setting, all of the Blue Book properties offer rest and relaxation, and many have award-winning spas or wellness centres, extensive grounds and gardens in which to roam and relax.

Business meetings, product launches and private dinners are also catered for in many properties, along with bespoke events, civil ceremonies & weddings of varying sizes. Not forgetting those properties offering exclusive use hire of manor houses, lodges and hideaways, the choice is endless.

But do not take my word for it, I suggest you browse, book, and discover for yourself, which is your favourite Blue Book property!

With every good wish to you for 2021 on behalf of all the Blue Book properties. We look forward to welcoming you soon.

Old fashioned (in the best sense of the word), Currarevagh is situated on the shores of Lough Corrib in 150 acres of private woodland estate, now a European Special Area of Conservation. It is run as a private country house rather than a hotel, and the tranquil informality lends itself to those seeking to escape today's hectic world.

Built by the present owner's ancestors in 1842, the exceptional food, cooked by Lucy with flair, originality and passion, and magical grounds take centre stage. Having Connemara and the Aran Islands within easy touring reach, our own boats for guests use, many walks and abundant wildlife – it all makes a unique, original and wonderful experience not to be missed.

Since Paul and Máire Flynn opened The Tannery in 1997, it has become one of the most original and welcoming experiences in Irish food. What makes it special? There is Paul's cooking, of course – his fresh Waterford ingredients, ever-changing menus and mouth-watering focus on local produce. There is its unique location in the seaside town of Dungarvan, a stone's throw from the Copper Coast and Comeragh Mountains. The Tannery is the ideal base to stay when exploring the beautiful Waterford Greenway. But most of all, there is the Tannery's knack for serving up that most important of ingredients: a great time.

Staying overnight in the Tannery Townhouse, the compact and cosy rooms in the heart of downtown Dungarvan completes the Tannery experience.

Perched atop a wooded cliff, The Hideaway is nothing short of a luxurious escape and surrender to nature.

Leave everyday life as you know it behind and reconnect with yourself and a loved one for an experience unlike any other. The view from your veranda is simply breathtakingly gorgeous. Everyday life is on hold like never before.

The Hideaway is the ultimate in luxury camping. In reality it is not camping at all but a luxurious en-suite bedroom in its own private grounds on an estate like no other. BBQ or dine in The Boathouse for dinner while a breakfast basket is delivered to your door each morning.
